This football camp is designed to instruct participants on individual and team aspects of Trojan football. During each day from 9:00 am till 11:30 am, campers will receive instruction and demonstrations involving both offensive and defensive fundamentals, skills, and drills. Every camper will participate in drills and competitions that are designed to increase their ability and knowledge of the game. Campers will learn offensive and defensive formations that will be implanted in the 2009 season. They will also be given the opportunity to learn and run some of our offensive plays. The players will be instructed by the coaching staff of Andover Middle School. Please complete the form below along with a check for 50.00 made out to Kevin Fox and submit to me as soon as possible. Camp fee includes T-shirt and accidental injury insurance. We look forward to seeing everyone on July 6th.
